"Living the Consecrated Life"

Being members in our Ursuline Congregation

This conference retreat will focus on the impact and importance of the vows of a woman religious: poverty, chastity, obedience and, in the case of Ursuline Sisters, a fourth vow of instruction.

Any woman religious from any religious community is welcome to attend and can benefit from this conference.

Retreat Leader

SISTER LYNN JARRELL, OSU, MA, JCD

Sister Lynn is a member of the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville, Ky. She has a doctorate in Canon Law from The Catholic University of America and a master's in communications from Western Kentucky University. Lynn served in her congregation's leadership as president (2008-2014) and vice president (1992-1996).

She was the former Associate Director of Canonical Affairs for the Resource Center for Religious Institutes in Silver Spring, Md. (2005-2008).

Since 1984, Sister Lynn has worked with the leadership of religious institutes and their national organizations in the U.S. and beyond, most recently in Canada and Zambia, Africa.

After finishing her term of congregational leadership in July 2014, she again resumed this work, serving as a consultant, facilitator and presenter on a range of canonical and religious topics, including presenting retreats on religious life; facilitating leadership groups and chapters, and accompanying institutes through the planning and implementation process of coming to completion.
